The information I have provided in, and with, this application is true and complete, to the best of my knowledge. I understand that any offer of a place is conditional upon the screening, to the satisfaction of the University, of any or all of the information I have supplied. For the purposes of the Data Protection Act 1998, University Centre Weston is the Data Controller of this information.

I understand and accept that providing false or misleading information, or failing to mention a material fact, may be a legitimate cause for the withdrawal of an offer of a place or, if I am already a student at Weston College or University Centre Weston, for exclusion. In particular, this will be the case if, after thorough evaluation of the relevant circumstances, University Centre Weston forms the view that I provided false or misleading information or failed to mention a material fact deliberately.

All applicants are required to declare any criminal convictions that are unspent under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. In addition, applicants to courses that involve contact with children or vulnerable adults will be required to complete a Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) application. For further details about how criminal convictions affect the admissions process please refer to our HE Admissions Policy.

I give my explicit written consent that the University may use this personal data. My consent is conditional on University Centre Weston complying with its obligations and duties under the Data Protection Act 1998. Please view our Data Privacy Policy for more information.

I confirm that I can provide copies of my documents are an exact likeness to the originals and I understand that I may be required to produce my original documents to University Centre Weston at any time and am prepared to do this at short notice. In addition, I recognise that I may be asked to provide more then one reference as part of the selection process.
